Enumclaw's life-long learners connect with art during the Arts Alive Gallery classes. Arts Alive! is an all-volunteer group 501(3), that raises funds for the plateau arts community. The City of Enumclaw, 4Culture of King County and Arts Alive! present an exhibition of current works by students of local art class teachers. The classes are held at Enumclaw's Arts Alive Gallery. This exhibit will feature artworks in oil, watercolor, and pastel.

The classes offered at Arts Alive Gallery are instructed by Lorrie Maras, Patricia Doyle, Elaine Lynest, and Helma Raycher.

The Enumclaw Arts Commissioners invited the teachers and their students to exhibit in Gallery 2017 to share with the community the artwork being done and the kind of classes offered locally for adults interested in improving their art skills. The local arts commissioners are Chair, Anne Crandall; Vice-Chair, Janet Berthon; Elaine Lynest, Patricia Doyle, and Jody Olson.

The exhibit includes artworks by Bertha Moore, Susan Taylor, Janet Berthon, Pearl Sidhu, Patricia Doyle, Christine Eiede, Elisa Ludviksen, Patricia Garrett, Nancy Hoksbergen, Bonnie Larson, Sallie Box, Patricia Dutil, Wanda McArthur, Laurel LaFon, Lorrie Maras, Denise Clardy, Laura Deck, Lorrie Maras, and Elaine Lynest.

Gallery 2017 is located in the Council Chambers at Enumclaw City Hall. 1339 Griffin Ave. Enumclaw, WA 98022. Hours for the exhibition space are 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Enumclaw City Hall is closed on national holidays. Gallery 2017 is closed to the public on Tuesday of each week for municipal court proceedings..
